

I am not pleased to hear that Fifth Third, Bank One and others are requesting dilution of privacy laws that would allow them more latitude in calling private homes. Indiana has a very good "Do No Call" law. Keep it! I don't need any calls from these banks. By the way, I have a checking account with Fifth Third and will make a similar complaint to them.